After graduating from the Regent University School of Law in May of 2012, Erin Ralston joined Goodman Allen Donnelly as an Associate in its Veterans Benefit Group. Erin developed her passion for working with Veterans while working as a law clerk under Daniel G. Krasnegor. During her tenure she had the unique opportunity to gain invaluable experience in learning the complexities of the VA adjudicative system while working directly with veterans in their effort to obtain disability benefits. Erin has focused her practice exclusively on the representation of Veterans and their families, and has experience with issues involving female veterans.
