Trace Hall addresses billing disputes and compliance issues for health care providers and has a background in insurance defense litigation. He assists clients with contracts, collections, licensing, and property matters. Mr. Hall graduated from Hampton-Sydney College in 2011 before clerking for Moore & Van Allen in Charlotte, NC assisting on various litigation projects. He then obtained his Juris Doctor from William & Mary, Marshal Wythe School of Law in 2016. During his time in law school, Mr. Hall took several administrative and compliance law courses that led to an internship with the Riverside Health Legal Dept and William & Mary Office of Compliance and Equity. Mr. Hall has built upon this experience during his time at the firm and has assisted with revising contracts, collections issues, and property acquisition matters.
